Cars of the World!

Kim Henson invites you to travel the globe with Wheels-Alive in search of some fascinating motor cars...

Some cars have been designed to go fast, some have put safety at the top of their priorities and others have been built on a budget, designed to simply get you from A to B.

People have been manufacturing cars for over 100 years, resulting in hundreds of different manufacturers, thousands of different car models and over a billion registered vehicles around the world.

From the Porsche 911 to the Kiira EV Smack, this infographic is a great guide to cars around the world.□ So, just for fun buckle up and take a quick trip around the world with a little help from some of the most iconic cars today...
