Beaulieu tells us...

(All words and photographs from Beaulieu).

Supercar enthusiasts can now get their first glimpse of the Prestige & Hypercar line-up for this year's Beaulieu Supercar Weekend, with the first exciting models revealed and more still to be announced. Taking place on 1-2 August, the unmissable two-day family event is one of Beaulieu's biggest events and among the most spectacular supercar shows on England's South Coast. Visitors can also look forward to a host of new experiences for 2026, including live music for the first time and a brand-new hospitality area in the Abbey Domus, offering the perfect place to relax, enjoy food and drink, and soak up the atmosphere throughout the weekend.

Leading this year's Prestige & Hypercar display, set on the stunning lawns of Palace House, the ancestral home to the Montagu family, is the all-new Ferrari F80. Joining it is the Swedish hypercar, the Koenigsegg Regera and the Aston Martin Valhalla, showcasing its impressive Formula One-inspired technology. Making a welcome return is the Lotus Evija, one of the world's first all-electric hypercars, while the dramatic Brabham BT62 will showcase the aerodynamic design for which the Brabham name is famous.

Ferrari enthusiasts are in for a treat with the iconic Enzo and groundbreaking LaFerrari displayed alongside the track-focused SF90 XX Stradale, highlighting the evolution of Ferrari's ultimate performance cars. Also adding to the excitement is a special display of three generations of the legendary Ford GT, featuring the original 1964-69 model, the 2005-06 revival, and the latest 2017-22 version. Meanwhile, British supercar fans won't want to miss the Noble M600, an exclusive high-performance machine that has earned a reputation as one of the UK's most exciting supercars.

The Prestige & Hypercar Lawn will also welcome back the celebrated Porsche Holy Trinity display in partnership with Porsche Centre Bournemouth. More prestige and hypercars will be revealed in the lead-up to the event, so supercar fans are encouraged to keep an eye on the latest announcements via Beaulieu's social media channels and website.*

The Demonstration Run is always a highlight of Supercar Weekend, with selected supercars taking to Beaulieu's Chestnut Avenue at 11.30am, 1pm and 3pm, giving showgoers multiple chances to catch the action. Drivers will put their cars through their paces, showcasing their handling and braking in a thrilling live display, with all the action also broadcast live on the big screen in the Arena.

The Supercar Sound-off, sponsored by Nanolex Car Care UK, is another crowd favourite, with a selection of cars revving their engines in a bid to win the loudest cheer and take home the coveted Beaulieu trophy. Elsewhere, visitors can step into the driver's seat with the F1 simulator, offering the chance to experience the intensity of high-speed racing as they take on virtual laps of a racing circuit. The F1 Simulator is available for an additional charge on the day.

Live music will feature at Supercar Weekend for the first time, with visitors able to enjoy performances throughout the day. Soundtracking Saturday is acoustic duo The Woven Crows, featuring John Burke and Tatt Hussein, while Sunday will see brother-and-sister duo Tunebox performing popular pop and rock covers, with more acts still to be announced.

For those looking to enhance their Supercar Weekend experience, special hospitality packages are also available. Set within the medieval Beaulieu Abbey Domus, the hospitality area offers the perfect base for guests, complete with a live stream of the action so nothing is missed, alongside a light breakfast, unlimited freshly brewed tea and coffee, a hydration station, buffet lunch, a glass of prosecco and a sweet treat. Visitors aged 18 and over can also upgrade to include unlimited beer, house wine and soft drinks. Hospitality packages are available in addition to a Supercar Weekend ticket.

Sporting Bears will return with their stunning supercar display, hosting a raffle in support of the local children's charity Simon Says. Lucky winners will have the unforgettable chance to experience a ride in one of their supercars during one of the Demonstration Runs. Meanwhile, the popular Mini ROVER rides return, giving young drivers the chance to get behind the wheel of a replica Series 2 Land Rover. Suitable for children aged four to ten, the off-road experience ends with drivers receiving their very own driving licence. Mini ROVER rides are available on the day for an additional charge of £10 per child.
