Beaulieu tells us:

(All words and photographs from Beaulieu).

The biggest outdoor sale of motoring items in Europe returns as Beaulieu revs up for its iconic International Autojumble on Saturday 6th – Sunday 7th September. With over 1,000 stands to explore, complete cars for sale in the Automart and exciting auctions hosted by Bonhams | Cars, this iconic weekend is a must for motoring enthusiasts. This year's event will also feature an exciting new addition, a Classic Car Park, showcasing vehicles of all makes and models for visitors to enjoy.

The Classic Car Park will feature a stunning selection of motors displayed against the picturesque backdrop of the Beaulieu grounds across the two-day event. With a fresh display of classics on show both days, judges will pick a daily Show Favourite and the winner will take home a trophy.

Owners of vehicles built in 2000 or earlier, regardless of make, model, or condition, are invited to showcase their pride and joy as part of this exciting display. As an added benefit, participants will enjoy direct access to the vibrant Autojumble from within the display area, making it easy to explore everything the event has to offer. What's more, Classic Car Park tickets include full access to the Beaulieu attraction, so they can make the most of their visit. Tickets are available until 2pm on 29th August or until capacity limits are reached, so early booking is advised to avoid disappointment!

The International Autojumble is best known for its bustling stands filled with a wide array of rare and hard-to-find spare parts. The event is perfect for those working on a motoring project, collecting automobilia or simply passionate about motoring. With knowledgeable stallholders on hand, the stands offer a great opportunity to gain expert advice, uncover hidden gems and pick up some great bargains.

In recent years, the huge outdoor sale has expanded its offerings to include a wide variety of vintage items as well. From retro clothes to vintage homeware, there's plenty to discover for visitors less focused on automotive goods.

The fun doesn't stop in the fields, the event also expands into the Beaulieu Arena and surrounding area with some superb features. Bonhams | Cars Auction will be back with more stunning collectors' vehicles up for bidding on Saturday 6th September. The elegant selection will include a 1926 Renault 40CV Limousine, with plenty more to be announced. A wide variety of automobilia will also be up for auction on Friday 5th September. To attend the auction, visitors will need to purchase a catalogue by either contacting Bonhams or purchasing one from visitor reception on Friday 5th or Saturday 6th September.

The Automart is the perfect place for showgoers to browse for their dream motor or next automotive project.

Those looking to sell their car or bike have an unbeatable opportunity to showcase their vehicle to thousands of eager buyers. Plus, a space in the Automart includes full access to the Autojumble and the entire Beaulieu attraction across both action-packed days. For pristine classics, the Dealermart also offers a great range of vehicles for sale from traders.

Advance one and two-day visitor tickets are available to book now. A limited number of premium tickets are also now on sale, offering exclusive benefits such as priority parking, early entry into the showground and a complimentary showguide.
