This weekend will see enthusiasts arriving at Beaulieu to survey the stands packed with automotive components and 'treasures', plus a wide variety of vehicle and club displays.

These will include a special line-up of classic Sprite caravans, these iconic vans were so popular in the 1960s/70s.

Unmissable (in my opinion) is the 'Moggyfest' display put on by the the Dorset Branch of the Morris Minor Owners Club, showing up to 200 Minors and contemporary classics, and this year's theme is 'Morris through the ages', with a particular highlight being a focus on the 8hp models.

Those looking for a classic to buy will be browsing the 'Automart' and 'Dealermart' areas of the show.

On the Sunday (18th), there will be a special section set aside for Land Rover enthusiasts, in the 'Land Rover Rummage' area, with parts, accessories and complete vehicles on offer.

On the Sunday only too, in the 'Trunk Traders' section of the show, amateur autojumblers will also be selling their surplus automobilia and parts from the boots of their cars.

Spring Autojumble tickets are valid for the other attractions at Beaulieu too.
