A wide variety of ideas for Father’s Day… suggested by The British Motor Museum.

They tell us: The British Motor Museum has plenty of ideas for Father’s Day on Sunday 19 June, whether it’s a special day out or a unique gift that you are looking for. Those visiting the Museum on Father's Day itself, can enjoy the spectacle of 500 vintage and veteran motorcycles at the annual Vintage Motor Cycle Club's Banbury Run. It's the biggest gathering of motorcycles and three-wheelers produced before 1931 and makes for a wonderful spectacle.

Why not treat Dad to an annual Membership at the Museum so he can enjoy admiring over 400 British classic cars and attending all the motoring shows. Membership starts from £42 a year and not only includes free entry to the Museum and its events, but also special Member only events including 'Museum on the Move' where you get to ride in a selection of the Museum's cars. Find out more at britishmotormuseum.co.uk/membership.

If you're looking for the ideal gift for an owner of a cherished classic car, then take a look at the Heritage Certificate products. Heritage Certificates are the official 'Certified Copy of a Factory Record' for a classic car showing the car's specification as it left the production line. For more information visit heritage-certificates. Orders placed by 31 May can be prepared in time for Fathers day.

The Museum's online shop also stocks a range of gifts from novelty motoring themed items such as 'Dads Garage' and 'Man Cave' tin signs, to motoring cuff links, hip flasks, mugs, and memorabilia as well as many unique marque products.
