The hugely popular Gaydon Land Rover Show will return for its 11th year on 3 & 4 May at the British Motor Museum. The dedicated show will once again showcase hundreds of Defenders, Series 1 – 3, Discoverys and mighty Range Rovers from 1948 to the present day and is the ultimate celebration of the best 4x4s.

The organisers are expecting a range of Land Rover clubs to attend this year. At the centre of the show will be the Arena where Dave Barker will lead an enthusiastic and knowledgeable team, providing live commentary and inviting owners, restorers, club members and enthusiasts to share their stories behind their treasured vehicles. Trade stands will also be available, selling Land Rover clothing, models, tools and accessories – perfect for enthusiasts and admirers alike!

Tom Caren, Show Manager at the British Motor Museum, stated “Join us for one of the biggest events of its kind – an exciting weekend dedicated to the legendary Land Rover marque! The show is one of the biggest days in the calendar for Land Rover fans and families and it’s the only show where you will find the number one pre-production Land Rover ‘HUE 166’ or ‘Huey’. It’s a great day out for all the family with a brilliant atmosphere, displays, live music, parades, and club celebrations”.

There will also be live music from vintage singing trio The Barn-Ettes’ on the Saturday. The Museum and Collections Centre will also be open where visitors can view the wide range of Land Rovers in the collection. Some of the most historically significant Land Rovers are available to see, not least the first pre-production
