Beaulieu tells us:

Another weekend of high-performance thrills are set to take the south coast by storm at Beaulieu Supercar Weekend on 2-3 August. With only a few hundred Early Bird tickets remaining from the original batch of 1,000, supercar enthusiasts should act fast to save on their tickets and secure their spot at one of the region's biggest supercar events.

The Palace House lawns will once again host the Prestige & Hypercar display, featuring a sublime selection of some of the world's most remarkable vehicles. Enthusiasts are in for a treat as they get the chance to get up close to their favourite supercars, beautifully displayed against the stunning backdrop of Palace House. This year, a special display on the lawns will showcase the Porsche Holy Trinity. In partnership with Porsche Centre Bournemouth, the display will feature the legendary 918, 959 and Carrera GT.

The paddocks will be packed with incredible motors, from nimble, high-revving sports cars to powerhouse engines. A selection of these supercars will showcase their speed, handling and braking down Beaulieu's chestnut avenue in the Demonstration Runs. This popular feature always draws a huge crowd, with spectators excitedly cheering on from behind the hay bales.

Meanwhile, other supercars will demonstrate the roar of their engines in the iconic Supercar Sound-Off in the arena. The winner is the driver whose thunderous revs trigger the biggest cheer from the crowd. Who will win? The applauding crowd gets to decide.

Longstanding supporter of Supercar Weekend, Brokspeed, will return with another line up of high-performance supercars and race cars in the arena. Sporting Bears charity is also back this year, raising funds for the local children's charity Simon Says by hosting an exciting raffle, offering the chance to win seats in some of their supercars during the Demonstration Runs.

For a chance to feel what it's like to be onboard an F1 car, the F1 simulator is a must for any supercar enthusiast! Showgoers can experience virtual high-speed test laps of a racecourse with young F1 superstar, Kimi Antonelli, behind the wheel.

NEW for 2025, showgoers can take to new heights and get a birds-eye view of Beaulieu Supercar Weekend by booking a helicopter ride! More details including how to book will be announced soon, keep up to date via the Supercar Weekend webpage and Beaulieu's social media channels.

Beaulieu Supercar Weekend is just one of the great events taking place at Beaulieu this year. For details on the full events calendar, visit www.beaulieu.co.uk/events.

Supercar Weekenders can also enjoy the whole Beaulieu attraction as part of their visit. This includes the award-winning National Motor Museum, featuring its latest exhibition Streets Ahead, taking visitors on a journey through a 1950s to 1970s street scene. Visitors can also explore Palace House, the ancestral home of the Montagu family, where a selection of newly refurbished rooms will be open to the public for the first time this year. As well as this, visitors can enjoy the 13th-century Beaulieu Abbey, Monorail, Secret Army Exhibition, Brabazon Restaurant and Little Beaulieu, the adventure play area.
