Low mileage 1973 Mustang comes to market

Chris Adamson Reports

A time warp 1973 Ford Mustang Coupe with one owner from new and less than 11,500 miles on the clock is set to go under the hammer at South Western Vehicle Auctions in Poole, Dorset on Friday 30 July.

The gold Mustang was ordered new from Bristol Street Motors to the specification of the recently deceased owner which included a 5.7 litre Q spec engine and a four-speed floor gear change.

Presented in near concours condition, it has previously been featured in the magazine of the Mustang Owners Club of Great Britain and has a warranted 11,238 mileage.
