Beaulieu tells us:

(Photographs and all words from Beaulieu).

Beaulieu will come alive with the sights and sounds of motorbikes and scooters on Saturday 6th June for Beaulieu Bikers' Day.

Open to bikes of every make, model and age, it's a fantastic opportunity for riders to catch up with friends and admire an exciting mix of motorcycles. Now in its third year, Beaulieu Bikers' Day has welcomed everything from sleek sports bikes to sturdy three-wheelers, alongside a host of timeless classics, and this year promises another strong line-up.

With just one month left to secure advance participant tickets, riders are encouraged to book soon. At just £10 per participant, tickets include entry to the full Beaulieu attraction, offering plenty to see and do throughout the day.

All participants will be in with a chance of winning the Best in Show Award, with the top three bikes, as voted for by the public, all receiving prizes. The prize-giving will be hosted in the Arena at 3pm by Show Commentator and YouTuber OurTim, who will also be bringing plenty of energy and insights on the microphone throughout the day.

Mental Health Motorbike will once again be at Beaulieu Bikers' Day, offering support to visitors throughout the event. The free mental health support charity focuses on improving the wellbeing of the motorbike community and their team will be available throughout the day for a friendly chat.

A Helmet Park will also be available at the event, allowing riders to enjoy everything Beaulieu has to offer without the need to carry their helmet or worry about where to leave it. Cash donations to Mental Health Motorbike are gratefully received in return for using this service.

Motorbike or scooter clubs are encouraged to join in the fun of Beaulieu Bikers' Day. To arrange a group booking, clubs should email the Beaulieu Events Team at events@beaulieu.co.uk at least two weeks before the event. Riders who are not part of a club but still wish to park together with friends should simply arrive as a group with individual tickets.

Participant entry opens at 9.30 am, with the Brabazon Restaurant ready to welcome riders and serve hot drinks and refreshments to help kick-start the day.

Tickets for Beaulieu Bikers' Day include admission to the whole Beaulieu attraction, including the National Motor Museum and its new gallery Driven: Britain's Motoring History. Tickets also include Palace House, featuring its recently refurbished bedrooms, the 13th-century Beaulieu Abbey, the Monorail, Secret Army Exhibition and Brabazon Restaurant. Plus, Beaulieu's interactive feature exhibition We Had One of Those where visitors can re-live the cars from their past.
