Beaulieu tells us…

Tickets for Beaulieu's 2027 events are now on sale, with many offering earlybird savings. The 2027 calendar promises a packed programme of automotive highlights and events for all ages to enjoy, with visitors encouraged to book ahead to take advantage of discounted ticket prices. Plus, to celebrate 60 years of the Autojumble, Beaulieu is offering free child tickets to both the Spring and International Autojumble with every adult ticket booked in advance. It's the perfect opportunity for families to introduce the next generation of motoring enthusiasts to these iconic events.

Tickets are now on sale for the Spring Autojumble, returning on Saturday 15 and Sunday 16 May, with free child tickets available for every adult ticket booked in advance. Visitors can explore a huge range of motoring spares, tools and automobilia, alongside the returning Vintage Market, live entertainment, Yesterday's Drives: A Showcase of Pre-2005 Vehicles, the Automart and the ever-popular MoggyFest display of Morris Minors.

Celebrating its 60th anniversary, the International Autojumble returns to Beaulieu on Saturday 11 and Sunday 12 September, with tickets now on sale. As part of the celebrations, children can attend for free with every adult ticket booked in advance, giving families the chance to enjoy this milestone event together. The weekend will feature plenty of automotive stands, live entertainment, the Automart offering cars for sale and a variety of vehicles on display in Yesterday's Drives: A Showcase of Pre-2005 Vehicles.

Garden lovers can now secure their place at the BBC Gardeners' World Spring Fair, with tickets on sale now and discounted advance prices available for those booking early. Taking place at Beaulieu from Friday 30 April to Sunday 2 May, the three-day event will offer visitors the chance to pick up fresh ideas for their own gardens and enjoy a packed programme of gardening activities. Highlights include a showcase from event sponsor Hillier, practical workshops, expert-led talks and the Good Food Market. The weekend will also see BBC Gardeners' World presenters Adam Frost, Ashley Edwards and Frances Tophill take to the stage on Friday, Saturday and Sunday respectively, sharing their knowledge and passion for gardening with visitors.

A fun-filled day out for all the family, Beaulieu's Custom and American Show returns on Sunday 20 June, bringing the spirit of Americana to Father's Day. Tickets are on sale now, with earlybird prices available for participants and visitors until 28 February. Alongside a colourful display of classic American vehicles, custom cars and iconic motors from TV and film, there will be plenty to keep everyone entertained, including live music, fairground rides and family-friendly activities. The event promises a lively summer day out for motoring fans and families alike.

Supercar enthusiasts and families can look forward to a weekend of high-octane excitement when Beaulieu Supercar Weekend returns on Saturday 7 and Sunday 8 August. Earlybird tickets are on sale now for visitors and available until 28 February. The event will bring together impressive supercar and hypercar displays, live demonstrations, music and entertainment throughout the weekend, with plenty to discover for car lovers of all ages.

Beaulieu's Simply rallies bring together vehicle owners and enthusiasts to celebrate their favourite marques in the stunning surroundings of Beaulieu. Participants can enter the People's Choice Award, voted for by public on the day, while selected Simply rallies also feature Story Behind The Car, where owners share interesting stories behind their vehicles. Participant tickets include full access to the Beaulieu attraction, making it a great day out for all involved. Earlybird prices for participants are available until 28 February.
