Autumnal evenings can be brightened by a series of lectures at The National Motor Museum...

They tell us:

(All words and images from The National Motor Museum, Beaulieu).

Specialist evening lectures by leading figures in the motoring world are scheduled this autumn at the National Motor Museum at Beaulieu.

The talks, in the museum's Collections Centre theatre offer a chance to hear interesting insights from experts and authors, and an opportunity to meet fellow enthusiasts.

The programme includes:

- 100 Years of MG with Jon Pressnell, 16 September, 7pm
- 70 Years of Genevieve with Andrew Roberts, 7 October, 7pm
- The Legend of Goldie Gardner with John Mayhead, 4 November, 7pm
- That's Shell - That Was! Shell Film Screening, 18 November, 7pm
- Fully Charged with Robert Llewellyn, 2 December, 7pm

Tickets are limited and are available online at Beaulieu.co.uk. The cost is £10 (discounted to £7.50 for Friends of National Motor Museum members).
